

can i sleep in your skin tonight?
my soul is heavy and my body is tired my baggage on my shoulders and under my eyes is too much for me to bear alone and i swear i know i'm undesired but if we could trade for one night of peace can i sleep in your skin tonight, pretty please?

can i sleep with you, as you?
there's monsters in my closet one of them was me but now i'm freed and like a prophet please hide me from my past and from my present too i'm tired of myself so could i sleep as you?

can i sleep in your skin tonight?
because i'm so tired of being myself if i stay i know i'll lose you too

- can i sleep in your skin tonight?
