Planting for native birds, bees and butterflies

Thursday 3 September,
6.30pm–7.30pm

BENTLEIGH LIBRARY AND YOUTH HUB

Want to help the native wildlife in your area but not sure how to start? Are you keen to grow more native plants but have a small budget? Would you like to attract native birds, bees, and butterflies to your outdoor spaces?

Countless Australian species of birds, bees and butterflies are in decline or threatened with extinction, but you can help. Writer and gardener Jaclyn Crupi shows us that protecting and fostering native wildlife starts in our own backyards. Based on the learnings in her latest book, this presentation will provide you with lots of practical advice, whether you're a seasoned gardener or just starting out. There will also be time at the end for a Q&A with Jaclyn.

Suitable for ages 15 and up. Free event. Bookings required at library.gleneira.vic.gov.au

WRITE

The road to publication with Katie Hoskins

Tuesday 8 September, 7pm–8pm

BENTLEIGH LIBRARY AND YOUTH HUB

Every published author has a first book. Join debut novelist Katie Hoskins for an honest and inspiring conversation about the road to publication. Hear how the idea for her acclaimed debut When the Party's Over became one of the year's most talked-about new novels, and what it's really like to launch a first book into the world.

From finding a publisher to building buzz and connecting with readers, discover the highs, hurdles and surprises of becoming a published author. Hosted by writer, podcaster and interviewer, Fiona Taylor.

Suitable for ages 15 and up. Free event. Bookings required at library.gleneira.vic.gov.au.

Signed, sealed, delivered: the art of letter writing

Sunday 11 October, 2pm–4pm

GLEN EIRA TOWN HALL
— CAULFIELD CUP ROOM

Is there a letter you've always wanted to write but didn't dare?

In this two-hour workshop with Sian Prior, we will explore the therapeutic pleasures of 'epistolary' (letter) writing. We'll look at some examples of authors who have used letter writing as a device, and analyse what makes a memorable letter.

Sian Prior is an Australian author, broadcaster and creative writing teacher with more than three decades of experience across radio, television, print and online media.

Suitable for ages 16 and up. Tickets $7. Bookings required at library.gleneira.vic.gov.au.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY AND COMMUNITY CENTRE — BOYD ROOM

Take a trip down memory lane with an afternoon of laughter, nostalgic fun and a little friendly competition. Test your knowledge with trivia inspired by decades past, featuring questions about classic films, memorable songs, iconic personalities, everyday life and the moments that shaped generations.

Whether you come with friends or on your own, you'll be warmly welcomed. No trivia experience needed — just bring your sense of fun!

Suitable for adults. Tickets $15. Includes tea, coffee and light refreshments. Trivia tables will be allocated randomly. Bookings required at library.gleneira.vic.gov.au/seniorsfestival

WRITE

Writing with emotional honesty

Wednesday 21 October,
6.30pm–8.30pm

CARNEGIE LIBRARY AND COMMUNITY CENTRE

Join acclaimed author Lee Kofman for an insightful workshop exploring the power of emotional honesty in writing.

Emotional honesty is essential for writers of both memoir and fiction. It helps writers fine-tune their voice, capture the complexity of human emotions and articulate the central conflict in their stories. But achieving emotional honesty can be challenging and, at times, uncomfortable. Guided by Lee's expertise, you'll explore practical techniques to strengthen these essential foundations of powerful storytelling.

Lee Kofman is an author, writing teacher and editor whose work spans memoir, fiction and creative nonfiction.

Suitable for ages 16 and up. Tickets $7. Bookings required at library.gleneira.vic.gov.au

The dark side of AI

Tuesday 24 November,
6.30pm–7.30pm

CARNEGIE LIBRARY AND COMMUNITY CENTRE — BOYD ROOM

Artificial intelligence is changing the way we live, work and connect — but it's also creating new opportunities for scammers and cybercriminals. From convincing deepfake videos and AI-generated voice clones to sophisticated phishing emails and identity theft, it can be harder than ever to tell what's real and what's not.

Join Tom Mason from Wired Narrative as he explores how AI can be used to deceive people online. Through real-world examples and practical advice, you'll learn how these emerging scams work, the warning signs to watch for, and simple steps you can take to protect yourself, your identity and your personal information.

Free event. Bookings required at library.gleneira.vic.gov.au.
