

The Traveller

I want to be a traveller, just like my Dad,

And fly across the sea, because swimming from Australia would be mad!

I want to see big buildings, as tall as they can be.

The Eiffel Tower in Paris, the CN Tower too, and the cool Leaning Tower, beneath a sky so blue!

They reach up, up, up high, like giant silver ladders to the sky,

Up where only the birds fly - just my Dad and I!
