

Star - Bound Bond

The moonlight and the ocean, forever in a trance,
The tranquil waters rippling gently glistening under the stars,

As the ethereal moon shines, illuminating the starlit night sky,
Like a timeless dream, untouched by many,

The moon yearned for a friend to be with, glowing down upon the moonlit waves,
The sea and moon saw each other eye to eye wishing for companionship,

They one and together warmed to each other,
The sky lit by tidal light.
